AMERICAN FRESH FISH.

Canadian Shippers Say Americans Are Supplying Montreal.

Urge to Increase of License and Raising Duty.

A despatch from Halifax says that at a meeting of fresh fish shippers of that port on Friday, the government was urged to increase the license for American fishing schooners using Nova Scotia ports. It seems that fresh fish from Boston, Portland and Gloucester is capturing the Toronto and Montreal markets. The shippers also recommend raising the Canadian duty from one-half cent to 1 cent a pound, the same as the American duty.
